Committee Reports:

Peach fundraiser (Kristin McWilliams): I wanted to give everyone another update on the peach delivery. I spoke with Shellbi Davis from Davis Family Farms this morning and she apologized for the delay in delivery and thanked us for our patience. It has been an odd year for them with the April freeze which created a peach shortage and some lulls in between the peach varieties ripening up. Some varieties did much better with the freeze than others.

The good news is she assured me that we would get our peach order in full, but that they need some more time to get good fruit. They anticipate being able to pick some good volume this week into next week, then being able to deliver at the end of next week. I will send an email just as soon as I know details. I know your customers want their peaches!!

Restaurant Nights: Position open and will hold off for now on this due to COVID

Reminder-- Amazon smile, Incline logos, King Soopers & Pure-Vida Bracelets
